The goal of this project is to provide teachers and students with the necessary support to overcome difficulties associated with online schooling. Finally, students and teachers will be able to lead a quality educational process in distance learning.

The main goal is to help teachers and students acquire skills to perform educational activities that can prevent loss in learning and improve students' school results even in terms of online schooling.

In the first phase of the pandemic, there was no unified action in any country, so the teachers did what they knew and thought was best.

Quality online education requires new digital skills as well as knowing how to in terms of good practice.

However, these good practices are not known in the current educational environment. The teachers did not know which tools to use to ensure proper interactivity in teaching, and students were not ready to organize their online learning, not even digital lovers.
